

Shopping

What's the perfect memento of your visit to Kaua'i? Whether it's a handcrafted wedding band, clothing dyed with the Island's distinctive red soil, fragrant body treatments, aloha wear, locally grown coffee or a book of traditional Hawaiian stories, you're certain to find it at one of our many appealing shops.

Kaua'i Made

Kaua'i Made is a program that represents over 75 vendors and the unique products they produce on Kaua'i. Visit www.kauaimade.net to discover food and agricultural products, distinctive art and jewelry, Hawaiian heritage products, local crafts, music, apparel and many other gifts made by the people of Kaua'i. Each company has been qualified based on their authenticity and quality as a local product.

For Johnson

Ni'ihau Shell Jewelry

Ni'ihau, just off the shore of Kaua'i, is known internationally for its gemlike lei pūpū (shell lei) made from the tiny lustrous shells of Hawai'i's "Forbidden Island." Expect to pay hundreds to thousands of dollars for a Ni'ihau shell necklace, bracelet or earrings.

Ni'ihau shell necklace

Sunshine Markets

Kaua'i's Farmer's Markets

Monday:

Kōloa Ball Park, 12 p.m.

Kukui Grove, K-Mart, 3 p.m.

Tuesday:

Kalāheo Neighborhood Ctr, 3 p.m.

Wednesday:

Kapa'a New Town Park, 3 p.m.

Thursday:

Hanapēpē Park, 3:00 p.m.

Kīlauea Neighborhood Ctr, 4:30 p.m.

Friday:

Vidinha Stadium, Līhu'e, 3 p.m.

Saturday:

Kekaha Neighborhood Ctr, 9 a.m.